The Duty of True Democrats, The present is a political crisis of in ordinary importance to the deminoracy of Wisconsin Two years ago through tricks and bribery, a state tricks was thrust on them, essentially unworthy, and a portion of it in the main destitute of nearly every element of moral, sachal, or political honesty. Nothing saved this tricks but the failure of its opponents to concentrate their the feiture of its opponents to concentrate their strength. Its success was the signal for a general foray on public property and finances. Its practice has been uniform to sacrifice the poor and reductions on every occasion, and for the court selfsh and sordid ends

One of its first moves was to induce congress to give 2.000,000 acres of land to a rail road company, doubling the price of alternate sections, so that the people would have to pay $2.50 per agre for 4.000,000 acres, for the privilege of giang 2.000.000 to a company! This would have aboutered the cost of the road directly upon the industrial of the medium and the schome. dustry of new settlers. Fortunately the scheme dustry of new settlers. Fortunately the scheme faciled—no thanks to Barstow and the Balance. The next administration step was to sell the Swamp Lands—3,000,000 series—for $100,000,ot about 3 cents an acie! Men may take now, but such a bill three times passed the Senare in 1854 and every reliable Barstow man in both houses voted for it in all its phases. It failed—no thanks to than to them.

The School Lands were then attacked. Near 309,000 acres were sold last year to a few 4p culators at $1.25 per sere on thirty years time, and no part of the principal required down. They were mostly trubered lands. What chance have many man near to get school lands? have poor men now to get school lands? The whole, nearly, have been sweept from them, The whole, nearly, have been sweept from team, and they must buy of speculators.

We do not propose to allude to their wasteful and profligate expenditure of public funds, or evident mismanagement or incompetency in all things. The pockets of every tux payer ingled things. The pockets of every tax payer ingled at the prospect. What we protest against is that their organe call these doings Democracy!

They actually take the ground that those who oppose such proceedings are not democrate. This reads out ninety-nine out of every hundred in the state. Their political capital stock is not now a prefession of honest purposes and democratic doctrines. It is, that they are pleged to favor the free sale of intoxicating drinks. Democracy has an out and whiskey has run in to the issue, and on the 'swelling flood' they are to be borne into office. Every other issue is to be awallowed in this. The creed of Jessen is to be drowned out. Now we have never favored sumpluary laws—we think thore me cases. ed sumplusty laws—we think thore are cases street cold water can be mixed—but we don't propose to take Baratowism in our drink There are plenty of honest, sound, capable and moderate men in our ranks—men who will truly represent democratic principles—men fit to be trusted on all subjects. The party wants such a tick-at, and will accept no other. They don't propose to follow this set to glary astride of a barrel of tiquer. They want something left to cat, even it short to drink. ed sumptuary laws—we think there are cases uor. They want son bort in drink where They want something loft to cat, even if short in drink.

What is to be done? The plans of the Forty are matured. Their agents, drawing 30 per cent. of schopf fine revenue, are already operating over the state. They advocate themselves first. If they fail, their substitutes are all picked out. It is not deemed desirable that public sfairs shall be investigated for a year or two yet. There is but ong remedy left. It is that the people attend the primary conventions. We want delegate who w??! not come wish Cabool hand doplicate puned to their dickeys—who lave some tangible interest in good government—and who w??! represent principles und not spirits. If honest farmers and laboring mon make up that body, sif will be well, but if made up of more political drones who ske out a miserable life from polit, appointments, and whose lines stands half the time in pawn to the water-would half the time in passenger of the political successed contributions. Minister at War, and dated May 4:

Monsieur Le Marrenal: My telegraphic dispatch of the 2d gave you the account of the taking by main force and the occupation by our tropps of a work of counter approach which the endmy had raised in 1000 to our left attacks.—
This work, which was of very considerable extert, was composed of the broken lines apparated by an interval of 40 metres, and the extremitien of which were supported by some natural oblation by the force of the ground. It was in communication with lungth of the General Bastion by a deep trunch and had been mounted with nine hand morians, the first form which scriously annoyed our works. This advanced work was of very great importance to the enamy, as from it they could pulnaps have destroyed one of our recently completed batteries as well as the works around it, and would have had a cross fire on our attaks on

The loss of the Russians was very considerable. We took possession of the nine-band-mortars which had been placed in position.

As soon as the work was occupied the engineers commerced operations to turn the parapets, in order to secure the position from the fire of the town and to unite it by a communication with our parallel in the rear. These works were excented in the manner agreed on beforehand, but under such a fire of artillery as certainly never before proceeded from any iplace. But I can tell you that to a travelling correspondent an idea or a circumstance is a little mine of wealth, and not to be lightly cast saide, for it is his daily bread and butter. And then too, you will do me the justice to acknowledge, that I never write on accidents nor the wealth-nor speculate on the Eastern Question, nor give you long articles puffing the various Hotels, in the hope of escaping the payment of my bille. No, gentlemen—such acts I scorn, especially as they would be ineffectual, for the Hotels in this region of country have more guests than accommodations. Of the Walter House I could say much in prase—as also of its gentlemanly Clerk, and its lady-like; golden-haired chambermand, Mancy, with her sweet face, that "reals-up" my room, but it would avail nothing, as the landlord is ineverable—and so I will say nothing about it. will say nothing about it.

What "Jack Frost" Din The heavy frosts which visited nearly every portion of our state on Saturday and Sonday nights, the 2d and 31 itst., we believe were more severe in this section than any yet heard from. We saw the remains of some of its "doings" in the orchards of Mr. E. 3 Turner and C. O. Danie's, of Graffon. Plums, peaches, cherries and cutrants were totally destroyed, and in some instances the apples were affected. Comp. possions, and in fact everything in these parts was nipped more or less by this notations frosty "Jack."—10 rankee Advertiser.

A day or two after, being out crusing she fell in with the Ap-pleton and an officer was sout on horst to exampleton and an officer was sont on heard to examine her papers. They were found perfectly in order, whereupon the officer demanded to see the order, whereupon the officer demanded to see the bills of lading.

The American Captain objected to this and began to make difficulties which excited the suspicious of the British officer, so he maked on their presentation which was at length complied with, when it appeared that the Applaton had just lauded 50,000 rides and 10,000 revolvers, besides about 800 bales of cotton as the osterable met of caroo. The ship was carefully over.

Milwauke and its Beauties—Summy Evening
Genman Ammement.

Mil wauker, Jone 4, 1855

You see Mr. Editor, that I date from Milwaukee, a town unequalled, and beautiful. lineable place, on the whole chain of Lales. Its "West end?" comprises a greater number of beautiful threateness and cosay cottages, than any towe of its dimensions within the circle of my observation—and them, what an atmosphere—wholes some and invigorating even through the long hat it is, without one unseemby blot to mar its beauty. And then, what an atmosphere—wholes some and invigorating even through the long hat it is, without the dust accompaniment of a certain town we wot of but which shall be nameless it gives a vigorous, contented, stay-ut-bome feeling, unaccompanied by a wieb, or Lake Superior.

The population of this place is largely German, a sober, laborous pontion of the people, who are given to music, merry-making said money making, much so they were accustomed in their own as best of the cool, sharly places of the use their own in music, merry-making said money making, much so they were accustomed in their own as being Musical Society, giving frequent and very popular among themseves—and a large and flouring the first of the cool of the longe, that is very popular among themseves—and a large and flouring the first of the cool of the most celebra, the German opers, which are longely attention of the large and flouring towns and circs on the Lake. So much for the west end," as well as the neighboring towns and circs on the Lake. New York, June 14.

The Know Nothings had a stormy time at their Convention at Philadelphia, yesterday, and the season was protracted till 1 o'clock this A.M. Numerous apseables were made and there was a great deal of crimination and recrimination. Finally a vote was reached, upon the majority raport of the Platform Committee, and was agreed to by $0 to 59. 'The vote on the minority was 51 in favor of, and 92 against, and on Kenneth Raynoris of N.O. compromise proposition the votes stood, year 44, nays 57. The Convention and upredicted till 1 this A.M., when it was thought the injunction of secrecy would be removed.
